Who & why?

I'm a junior/mid-weight web developer with over a year's agency experience in the UK.

I love getting my teeth stuck into a commission and exceeding a client's expectations. I work well under pressure - in fact I find it pretty motivating to excel in what I do.

When I'm not coding:

I love music and enjoy producing my own electronic tracks. I play the saxophone and am learning the piano (slowly).

I like to keep fit as I find it very therapeutic and, living by the sea, I try to visit the beach as much as I can.

Gardening and cooking are high up there on my geek-out list. Especially when I can combine the two!

Other useful info:

- Bilingual: [English, Spanish]

- I like peaches
